PRESS RELEASE

DODONI - Significant presence in the United Kingdom

61% increase in the company's total exports over the last 3 years

British ambassador to Greece, Ms Kate Smith, on the occasion of her scheduled visit to Ioannina to meet local operators and businesses, went to the DODONI dairy products unit in Epirus.

During her visit, Ms Smith was given a guided tour of the state-of-the-art DODONI production unit where she tasted the pure Epirus cheeses and was informed about the products manufactured by the company, not only in Greece but also in its ultra-modern unit in Cyprus, for the Greek, Cypriot and another 44 international markets.

In addition, the British Ambassador discussed with DODONI's Deputy CEO Mr. Michalis Panagiotakis the significant contribution of the company to the local community through its cooperation with over 5,500 Greek producers in 500 villages. They also talked about DODONI's strong export activity to England.

It is worth mentioning that from 2014 to 2017, DODONI increased its exports by 61% with significant export activity also to the UK.
